PAVILLON FAUBOURG SAINT-GERMAIN

A new hotel, spa, and dining destination in the heart of Saint-Germain-des-Prés.

The Pavillon Faubourg Saint-Germain is owned and run by the Chevalier family, who also own Pavillon de la Reine, Pavillon des Lettres and Hotel du Petit Moulin.

Stroll through the storied Parisian neighborhood of Saint-Germain-des-Prés and discover boutique luxury at the new Pavillon Faubourg Saint-Germain, opening on 1st April 2022. Situated on the French capital's Left Bank, the design-led hotel is influenced by the rich culture and history of its surroundings, which served as the inspiration for local and international writers, artists and musicians for much of the 20th century. Irish novelist James Joyce finished his seminal novel, Ulysses, while staying at the property. Situated across three traditional buildings and brought to life by interior designer Didier Benderli, the hotel is the latest opening from boutique group, Chevalier Paris, and features 47 individually appointed rooms and suites, a tranquil spa, a bar and new restaurant, Les Parisiens, by award-winning chef Thibault Sombardier, all of which offer a refined and contemporary take on the quintessential Parisian experience.

SUITE JAMES JOYCE

More than simply a Suite - a Parisian home away from home.

Suite James Joyce is Pavillon Faubourg Saint-Germain's most spacious suite, spanning 753 square feet. On the top floor, the suite has double aspect windows and a high ceiling which flood the suite with plenty of bright Parisian light. Suite James Joyce is characterised by exquisite design details: parquet flooring and a handcrafted chandelier specially commissioned from Alexandre Logé for the suite. The 2 bathrooms has a neutral colour palette with orange highlights. Suite James Joyce: all the charm and elegance of the Left Bank - with all the understated sophistication of a private home.

Set to make waves on Paris' diverse culinary scene, the hotel's signature restaurant, Les Parisiens, serves refined and original cuisine created by Chef Thibault Sombardier. Widely considered one of the city's most exciting and diverse chefs, the restaurant marks a new chapter for Sombardier, who previously worked at the Michelin-starred restaurant Antoine and won second place competing against the country's finest culinary talent in the 2014 series of Top Chef. Menus expertly combine haute cuisine with a less inhibited style of cooking, showcasing a passion for locally sourced seasonal produce. Adjacent to the restaurant, the James Joyce Bar honors the iconic writer with a collection of signature cocktails inspired by his works and the heritage of the area. In keeping with the lively neighborhood scene, the bar is open throughout the day and into the night, spilling out onto the street-side terrace with a menu of fine wines, draft beer and small bites.

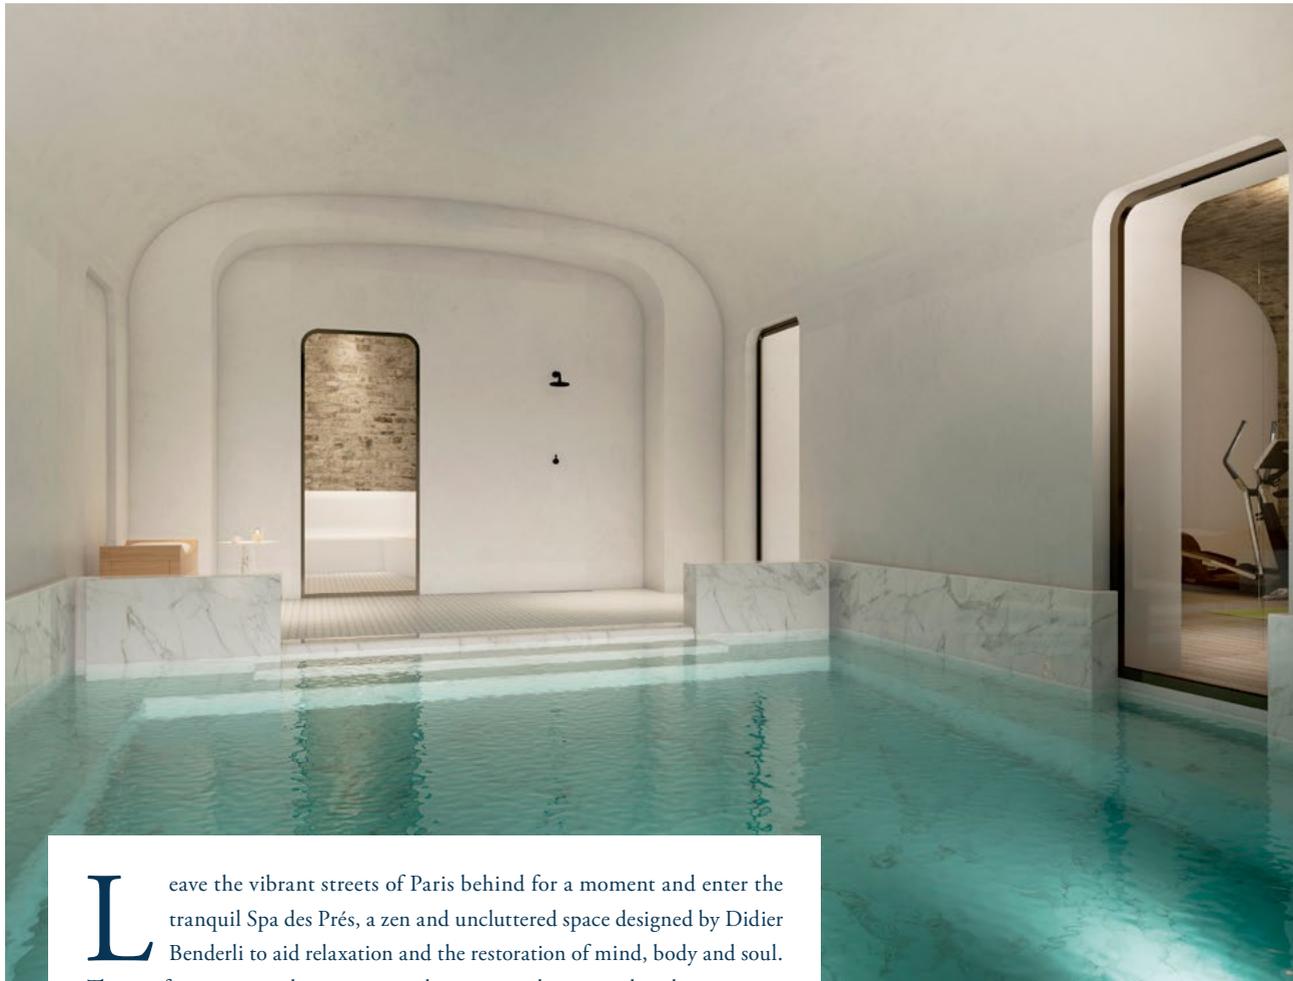

Les Parisiens is open from Tuesday to Saturday from 12:00 to 14:15 and from 19:00 to 22:15.

Bar James Joyce is open daily from 5pm to 1am.
Open to all.

SPA DES PRÉS

A haven of tranquility and well-being in the heart of Paris

Leave the vibrant streets of Paris behind for a moment and enter the tranquil Spa des Prés, a zen and uncluttered space designed by Didier Benderli to aid relaxation and the restoration of mind, body and soul. The spa features a meditation room, hammam, plunge pool with water jets, fitness room and two massage cabins. The menu has been developed in partnership with CODAGE Paris and utilizes the cosmetology brand's diverse product range to ensure that treatments are fully tailored to match the unique needs of different skin types.
