Place des Vosges

Pavillon de la Reine Hotel and Spa is a haven in the heart of the Marais, set in the Place des Vosges, the oldest square in Paris. The ivy covered building is set behind a private courtyard garden awash with roses.

Privately owned by the Chevalier family, Pavillon de la Reine Hotel and Spa has 57 individually decorated rooms and suites, with all the charm, sophistication and elegance of a grand palace. The hotel is a quiet hideaway, private, comfortable and deeply luxurious. As a family or with friends, we recommend the "Petit Pavillon", a triplex suite with its own entrance for up to 4 people. The Petit Pavillon is located in the hotel courtyard, for a feeling of intimate luxury.

The Marais is full of wonderful boutiques, galleries, perfumeries, fascinating museums, atmospheric cafes and restaurants. Place des Vosges built in 1612 by King Henry IV of France also features Victor Hugo's house.

Paris' original literary boutique hotel, set deep in the 8th arrondissement of the Right Bank close to Avenue des Champs-Élysées, the Presidents official residence, Le Palais de L'Élysée and the fabulous shops along Rue Saint-Honoré.

The Pavillon des Lettres offers 26 rooms and suites, each dedicated to a different letter in the alphabet – and in turn a great writer from European history – from B for Baudelaire, S for Shakespeare and Z for Zola.

Words from each writer are stencilled onto the walls of each room, behind each door lies the spirit of a poet, writer, virtuoso or genius, giving a unique atmosphere to the hotel. Designed by Didier Benderli these interiors are an alliance of the arts – combining literature, painting and sculpture in a subtle dialogue.

Rooms start at €295 per room per night with interconnecting options for families, up to 6 people.

Tuscany

Fontelunga Hotel and Villas, a stylish retreat in picturesque Tuscany

Guest dinner party

Perched above the rolling hills of the Val di Chiana, with sweeping views toward the medieval town of Cortona, Villa Fontelunga is an elegant countryside retreat offering all the charm and intimacy your clients dream of when imagining Tuscany.

This nine-bedroom villa-style hotel blends Italian authenticity with understated luxury. Guests can spend slow mornings by the pool or jacuzzi, explore nearby villages, or enjoy a game on the private tennis court surrounded by olive trees.

For an immersive culinary experience, Fontelunga invites guests to join a private cooking class (€120pp) where they'll prepare a traditional three-course Tuscan meal paired with a bottle of house wine — served alfresco beneath the stars. Each Wednesday evening, the hosts welcome guests to an exclusive dinner party (€95pp including prosecco and wine), bringing travellers together for convivial food, laughter, and local flavours.

Dubrovnik

Celebrating 10 years as Croatia's leading DMC, delivering bespoke service and quality through our trusted local network. Discover the Dalmatian Coast with Croatia's Cruise Experts.

Sail the Adriatic in style aboard our boutique small ships, each with fewer than 20 cabins, for an intimate and luxurious experience. We have English-speaking Captain, crew, and Cruise Directors on board, offering an exceptional service, and our professional local guides have all been carefully selected by us to provide real passion and insight into Croatia.

Enjoy inclusive itineraries featuring wine tasting in Hvar, a Marco Polo walking tour in Korčula, and daily swim stops. Each day, dock in a new port to explore local culture and cuisine. Choose from adult-only cruises, cabins with private balconies, or vessels ideal for groups and families. Our latest addition, MV Aretis (2025), the first luxury small ship built in Croatia in years, accommodates 36 guests and features a spacious Pearl Suite, sundeck, and Jacuzzi.
