Casa Neri Apartments

Rooftop Bar

An exclusive boutique hotel located in the heart of the old Gothic quarter, set in two historic and aristocratic houses, one of them a medieval palace from the 12th Century.

Located right beside Barcelona's Gothic Cathedral, the Hotel Neri is just a short walk from the bustling Las Ramblas, la Boqueria market and the famous Picasso Museum.

Our superb a Restaurant, with renowned chef Alain Guiard, offers a treat for the five senses. Enjoy a cocktail in the bar or relax on our rooftop terrace.

The Casa Neri apartments located opposite the hotel (30m away) offer one king bed or two twin beds. They all have a separate sitting room, kitchen, complimentary WiFi and a sofa bed allowing a maximum of 3 adults or 2 adults and 2 children. The apartments can also be connecting. They have a new rooftop pool which is for exclusive use of the guests at the apartments.

The Hotel Neri has been awarded with the distinction of 'Hotel Monument' from Barcelona's Hotels Association which recognises hotels that add value to the heritage of the city.

Our Tips

- Always book a private car transfer on arrival as some taxis will not drive through the narrow cobbled lanes of the Gothic Quarter (€90)
- Enjoy Paella at the best market in the World called "La Boqueria"
- Enjoy a cocktail on the rooftop
- Have breakfast on our terrace watching the world go by on Sant Felip Neri Square - where they filmed Vicky Cristina Barcelona

The exclusive Mas de Torrent Hotel & Spa is located in the Emporda region. Set amid Mediterranean forests, medieval towns and the beautiful beaches of the Costa Brava.

A member of the prestigious Relais & Châteaux association, the hotel is especially notable for its spectacular views and extraordinary gardens, as well as its impeccable and attentive service.

The restored 18th century stone farmhouse enjoys a privileged setting just one-and-a-half hours from Barcelona and under an hour from the French border, close to the stunning beaches of the Costa Brava, the medieval village of Pals and the ancient Greek and Roman city of Empúries.

The hotel was designed to create an experience of the Emporda region. It has 39 suite rooms, 10 suites in the main house, 20 in the gardens each with a private terrace, 7 with private pool, 1 eco-sustainable suite room and 1 2-bedroom suite. MasSPA features a fitness room, sauna, Hammam, heated pool, jacuzzi and cold plunge pool, terrace solárium, relaxation area and 4 treatment rooms.

Our Tips

- If you're only staying for one or two nights, why not book a getaway? Getaways include accommodation, lunch, dinner, and spa treatments.

- This hotel can be booked for private use depending on availability (except between months of May to September).

- Make sure to dine at both restaurants at the hotel. 'Restaurant 1751' and the more informal 'Restaurant Piscina' by the pool.

The Hotel du Petit Moulin is an authentic, secret residence, with fabulous interiors designed by Christian Lacroix. This quirky hotel in the heart of the Marais district in Paris has a whole host of treasures to discover. The 17th century building was originally home to Paris' first bakery where Victor Hugo would come to buy his baguettes. The shop frontage is listed as part of French heritage by Historic Monuments. There are 17 individually designed rooms and one junior suite, each telling a different story and experience of the Marais. No two rooms are the same - some are bright and daring, others antiquated and more rustic but all are theatrical and playful, and recognisably the work of Lacroix. Rates start at €212 per room per night.

Our Tips

- The hotel is ideal for those looking to enjoy a luxury stay in an authentic, out-of-the-ordinary residence, in the heart of "Old Paris".

Paris' original literary boutique hotel, set deep in the 8th arrondissement. The Pavillon des Lettres offers 26 rooms and suites, each dedicated to a different letter in the alphabet – and in turn a great writer from European history – from B for Baudelaire, S for Shakespeare and Z for Zola. Words from each writer are stenciled onto the walls of each room, behind each door lies the spirit of a poet, writer, virtuoso or genius, giving a unique atmosphere to the hotel. Designed by Didier Benderli these interiors are an alliance of the arts – combining literature, painting and sculpture in a subtle dialogue. Rooms start at €230 per room per night.

Our Tips

- Walk to the Avenue des Champs Elysees, the Arc de Triomphe, the amazing shops along the Rue Saint Honore and Galeries Lafayette in the Opera district

I.D.I. is now in France! We offer tailor made tours and individual itineraries specifically designed to suit the needs and interests of each traveller. We specialise in multigenerational, bespoke itineraries.

Let us inspire you. Enjoy a cooking class in Avignon. This class is held in the old kitchen of a famous cooking school hosted by some of the regions greatest chefs. After the lesson, you will have the pleasure to taste your cooked dishes.

If you're feeling active, why not take a bike tour in Paris to discover the hidden charms of the Left Bank, its open air markets and gourmet delights.

Visit the perfume making workshop in Grasse or take a wine tour in Saint Jeannet.

Enjoy the art galleries, architecture, fashion and food in Paris. Become a true Parisian with France Dream Incorporated!

Our Tips

- In Grasse book a private perfume making workshop and go home with a personalised fragrance that will remind you of your holiday all year long!
- Learn the secrets of French cuisine with a private cooking class in Avignon
- Take advantage of our special rates and amenities with hotels throughout France
